THE ERSTWHILE ROYAL DWELLING OF RAJASTHAN CHIEFTAINS & RAJPUTS

An ideal Indian rural farm getaway

DERA MANDAWA FARM

Naharsinghani Jod, Nawalgarh
Shekhawati Rajasthan

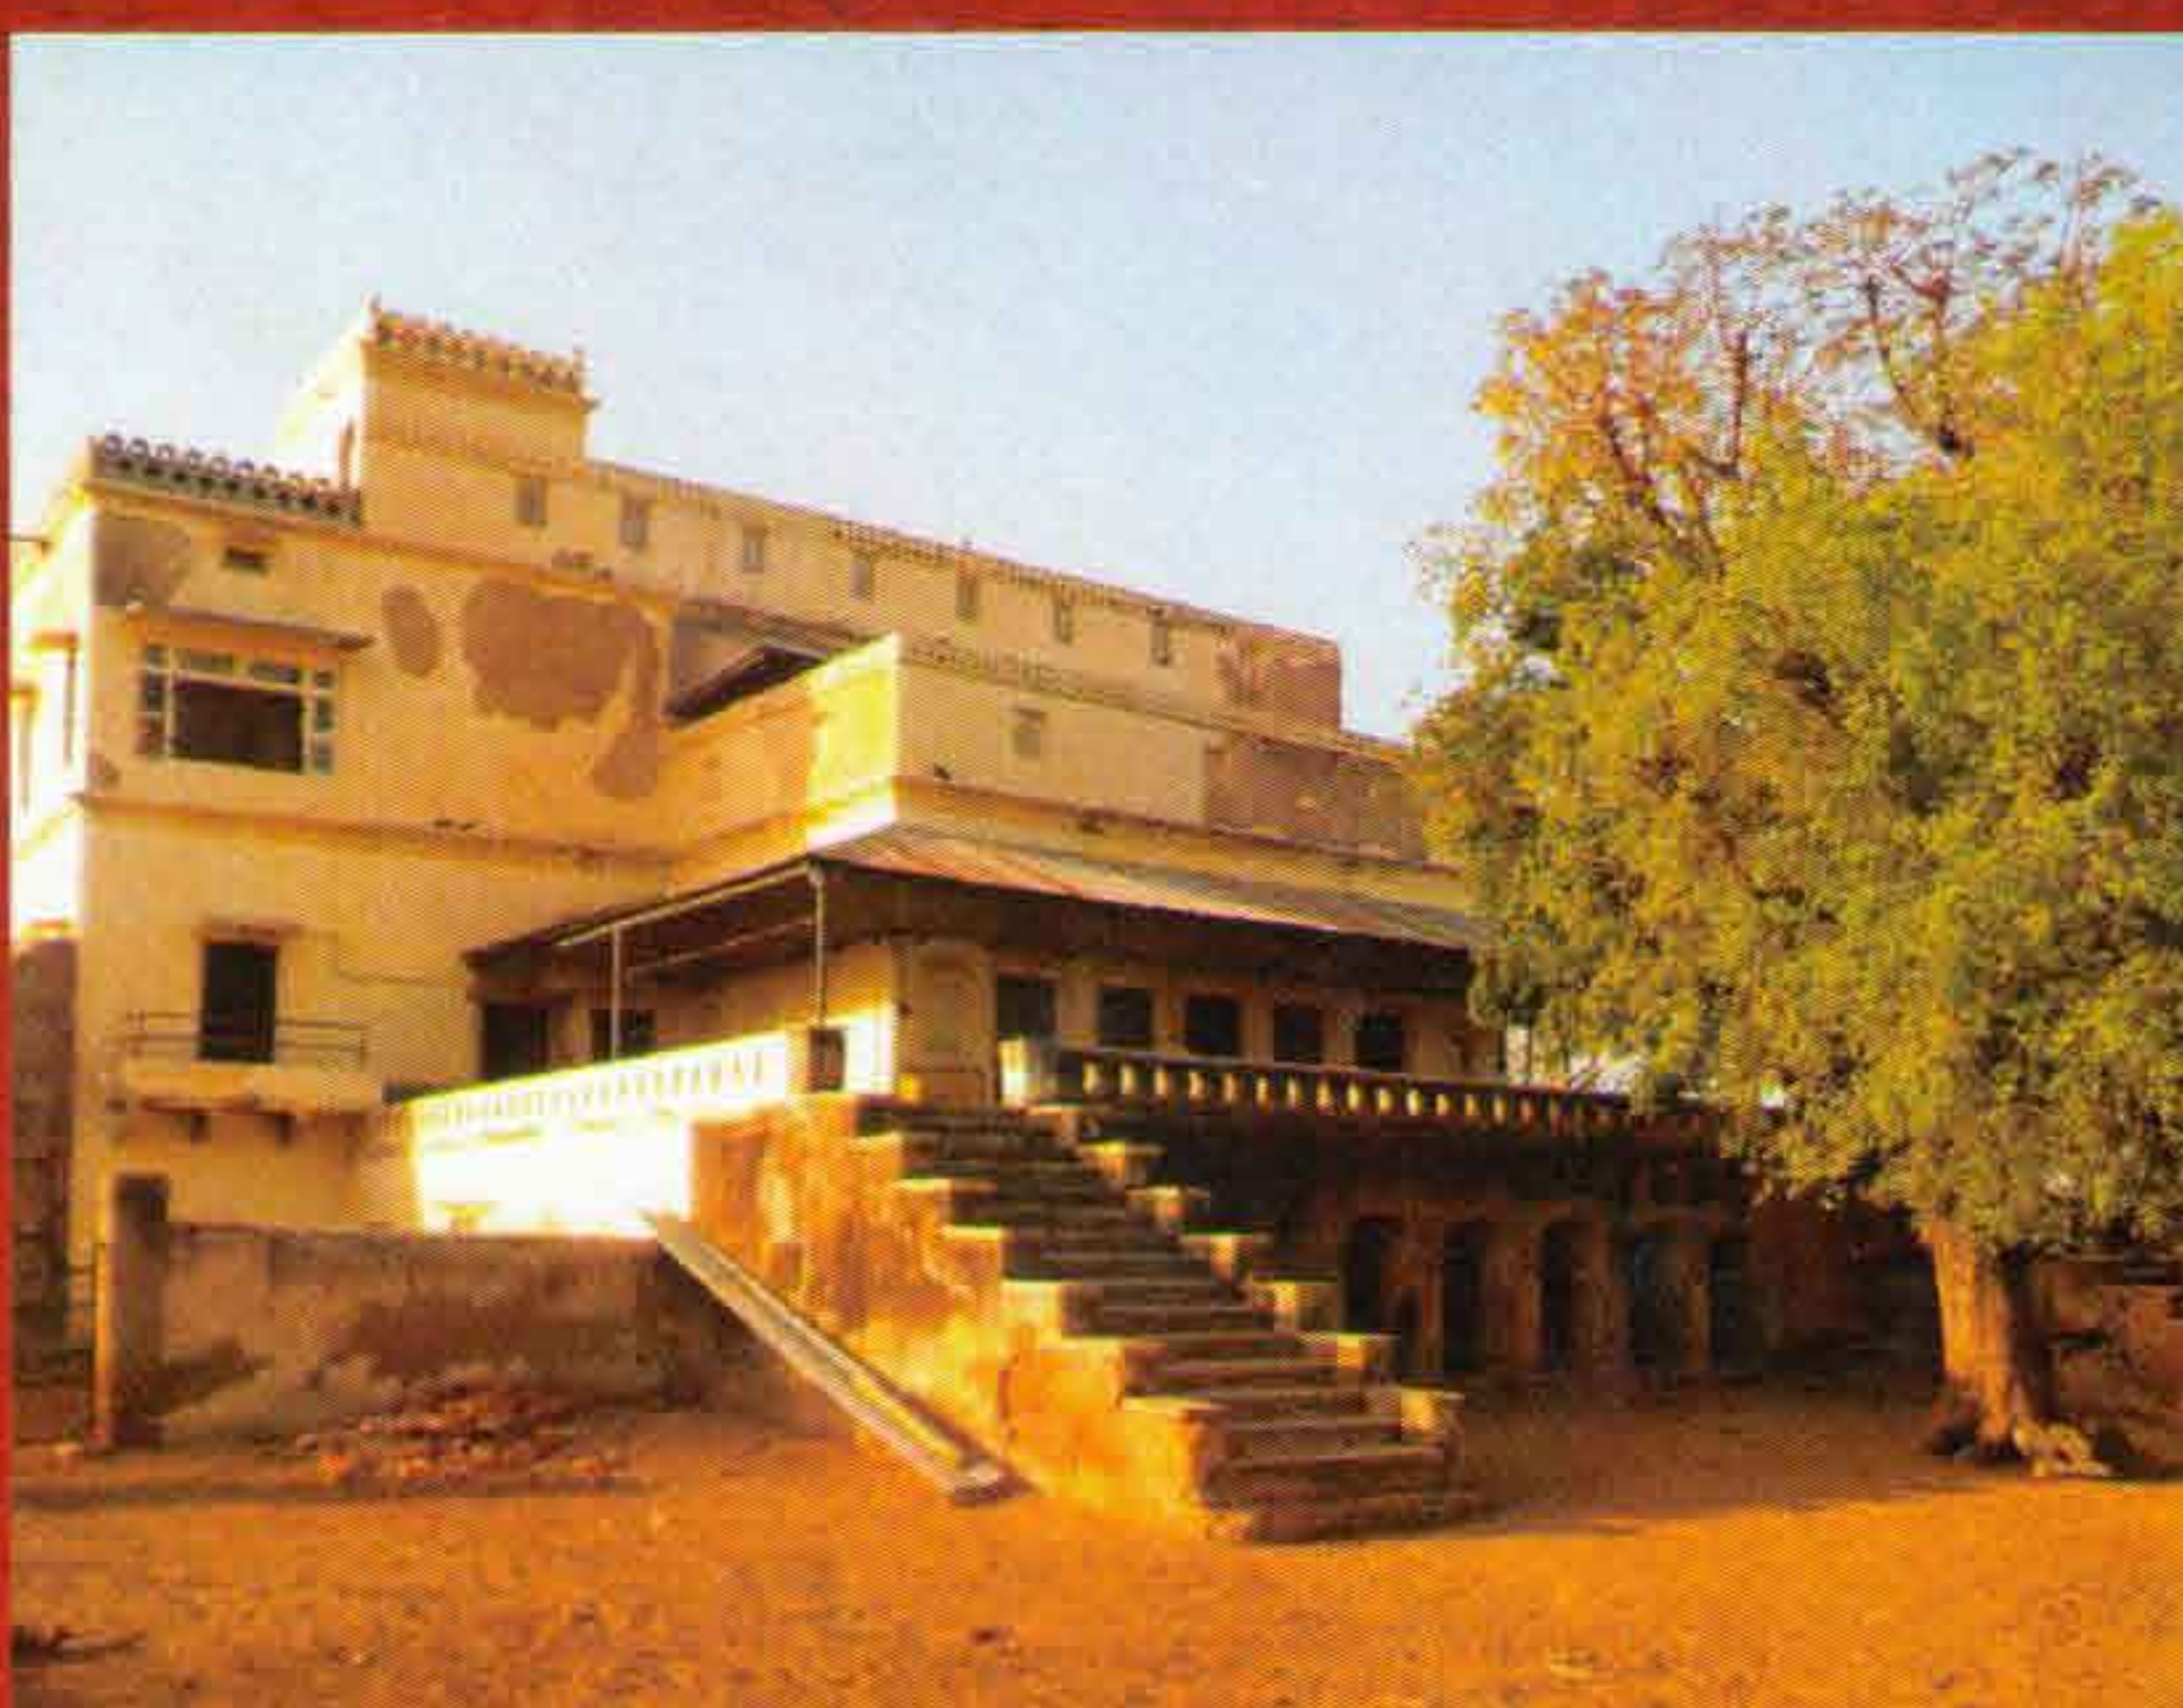

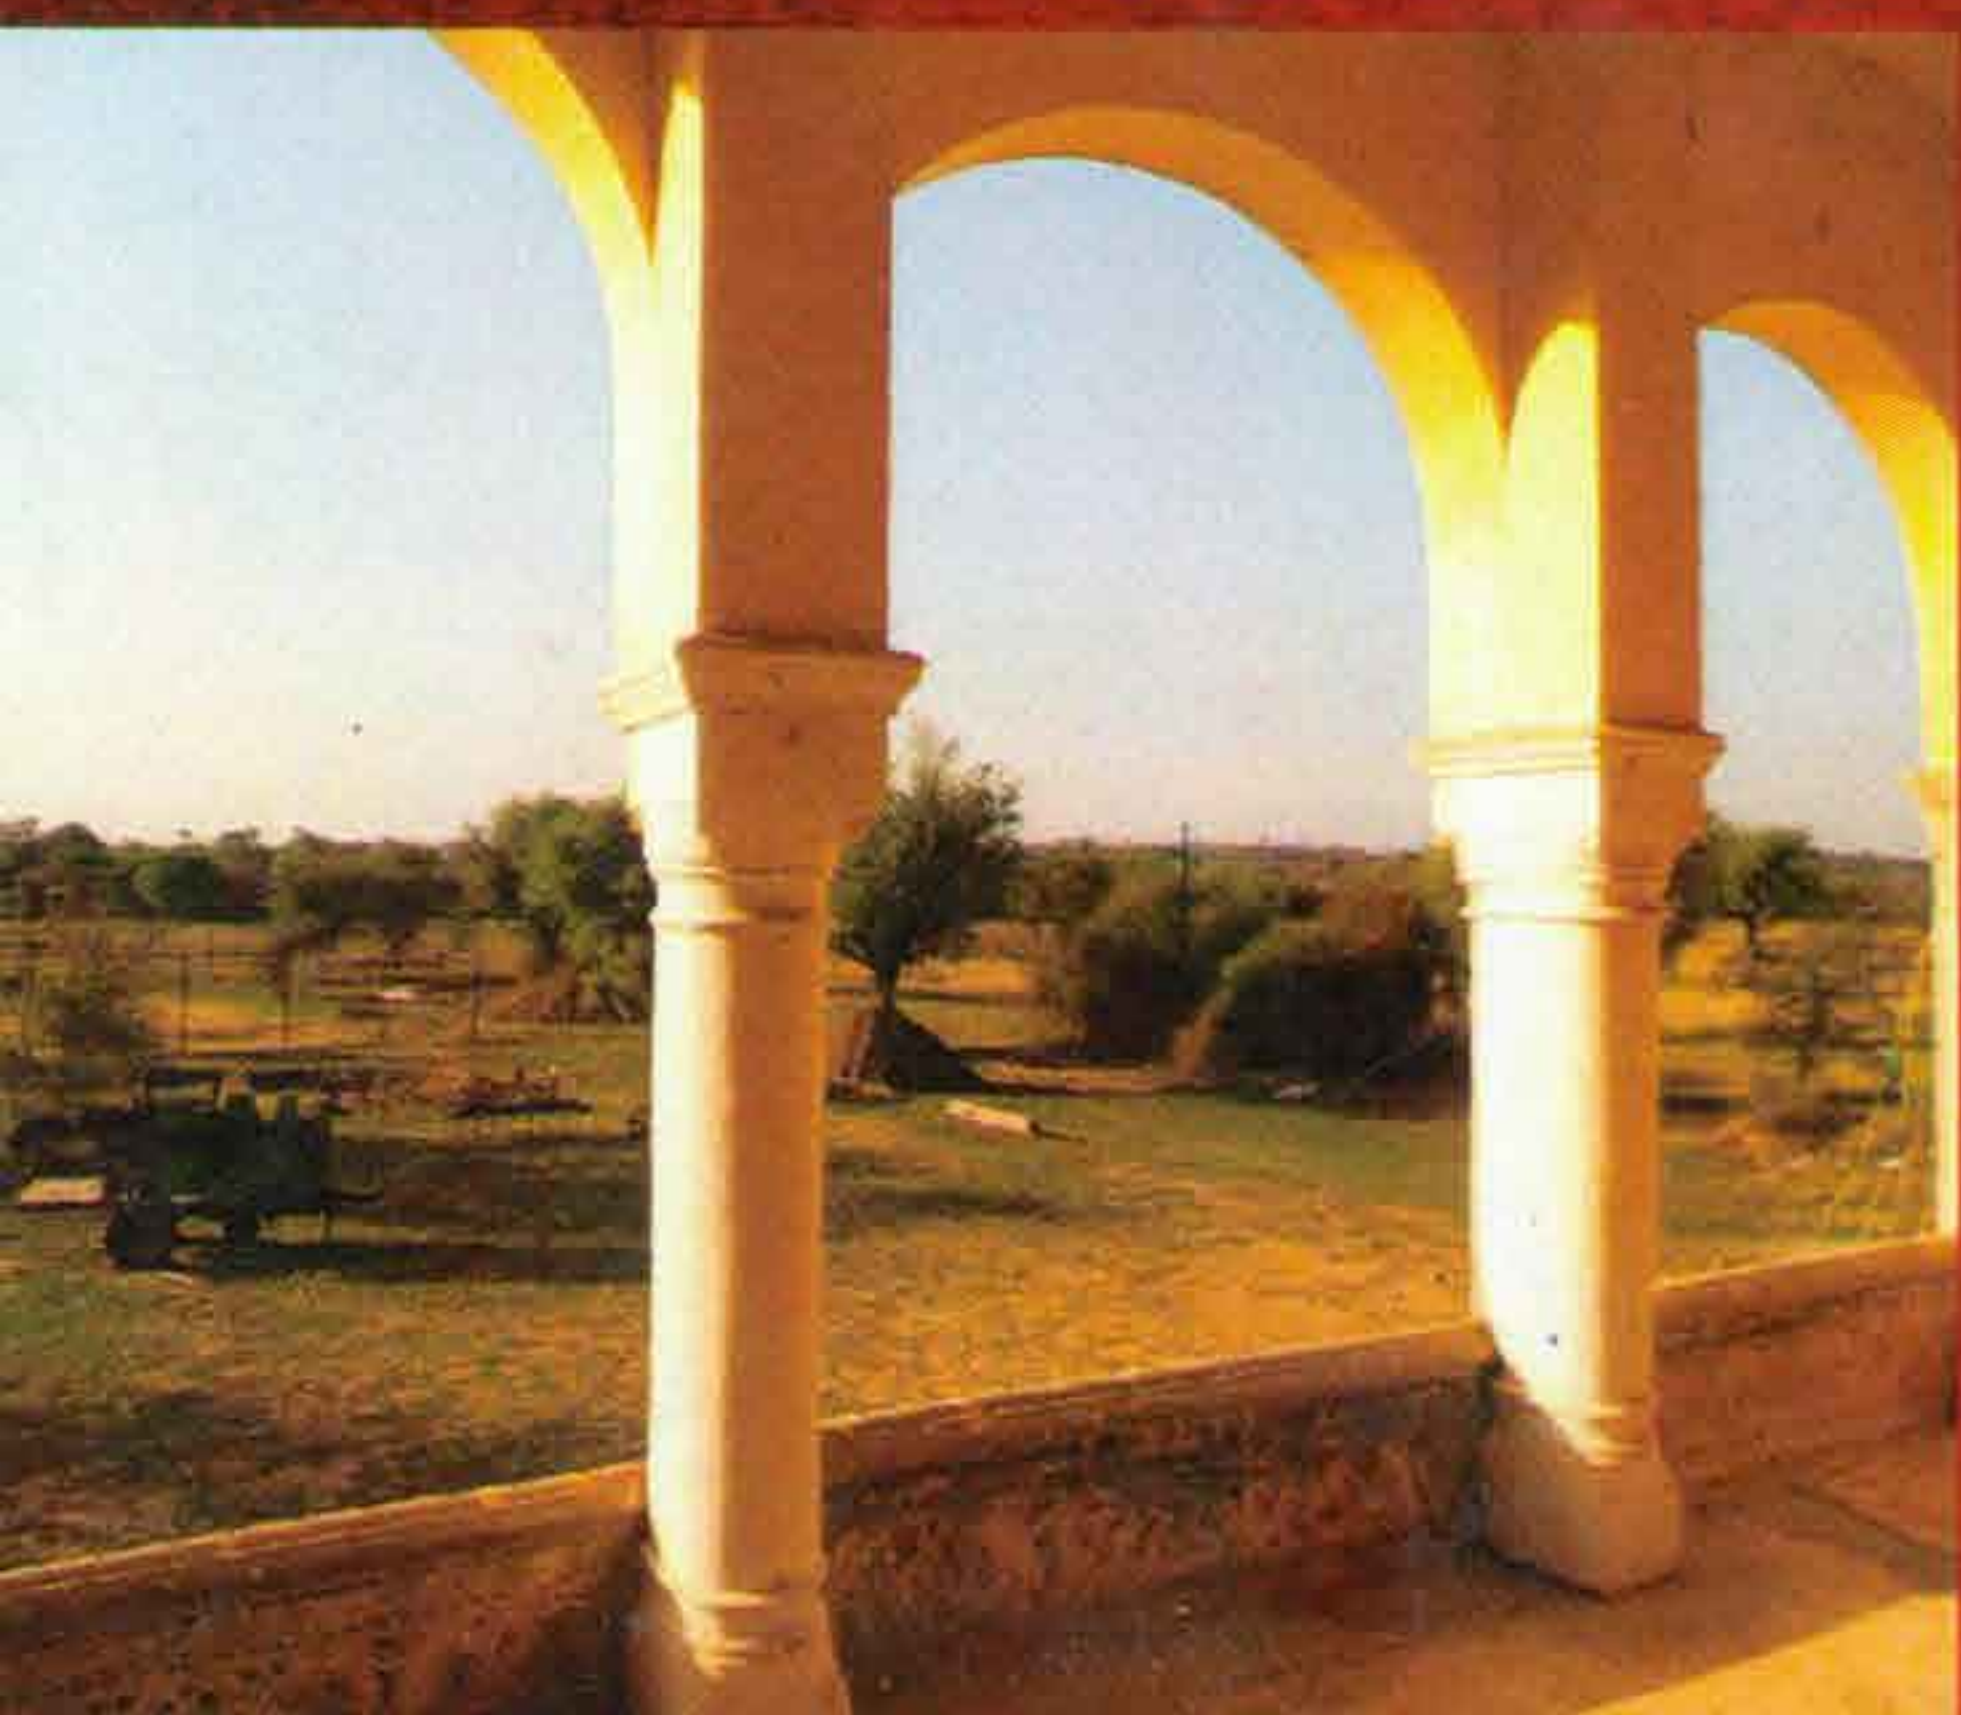

Established in 1925 by Thakur Inder Singhji of Mandawa, 'Naharsinghani Jod' was a horse ranch and farm house. Here the erstwhile aristocratic family of Mandawa dwelled in a beautiful four storey heritage home surrounded by thirty stables and about ninety five acres of land.

With a thriving herd of Tharparkar breed Brahmin cows, Chokla breed sheep, farm forestry and mixed cropping, it is a working farm even today.

Come over to Dera Mandawa Farm for a weekend, a few days, a month or more to experience the great outdoors surrounded by farm animals, birds and semi desert flora.

The perfect place to relax, rejuvenate, practice yoga and experience a new way of life, Dera Mandawa Farm offers unique opportunities to all its guests. We invite you to make your holiday different, meaningful and exciting.

COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Connecting with the local community of artisans for activities can be great fun!

- Participate in exciting farm activities like hand milking cows, shearing sheep, ploughing by a tractor or a camel and making fresh paneer(cottage cheese)
